This Sunday at First Pres

Did you know that leftovers are mentioned in the Bible? Both our scripture passages for this Sunday talk about feeding multitudes of people and what happens when the folks are full! Join us this Sunday to be fed spiritually as we worship and learn together.

If you cannot attend in-person at 8:30 or 10:30 a.m., join us online: livestream links and bulletins are available on First Pres website.

Eighty Guests for Lunch

Every day, United Caring Services provides three meals for fifty to eighty people. That's a lot of napkins. And a lot of forks. UCS is always grateful for contributions of paper napkins and plastic forks (no knives or spoons). Next time you are shopping, if you pick up a bag or a box, you could leave it in the collection container at the recycling station outside the church parlor. Jim Edrington, who volunteers there several times each week, will take it to UCS. With many thanks.

And if you're looking for a way to share hands-on help, join Gail Riecken when the First Pres teams serves lunch at UCS on August 12 by texting her at 812-550-2328.

Do You Know about Book Group?

The Book Group that began at First Pres over a decade ago is still reading, still meeting, and still discussing books. You are welcome to join us. We're mostly women but include men. We read mostly fiction but enjoy several non-fiction books each year.

Many of us are First Pres members but we're thankful for the folks who are not. Increasingly, most people attend in person, but we include a Zoom option. We meet at the church, on the first Monday of the month (but reschedule for holidays), from 6:30 to 8:00.

On August 5 we'll discuss Station Eleven by Emily St. John Mandel, an imaginative fiction novel about a time after a deadly world-wide pandemic. On September 9, our book will be Lacy Clementine by Marie Benedict, a novel centered on Clementine Churchill, wife of Winston, during World War II. Join us! If you have questions, ask Francie Hubbard or Jean Beckman.

Our Iona Pilgrims

Our Iona pilgrims have returned safely, and all reports are that they had a wonderful and meaningful experience! They're going to share some of those experiences with us on Sunday, August 4 in worship. There will also be a slide show during both morning coffee hours, so plan to worship in person that morning!

Let's Have Breakfast!

It's time for a favorite event! Mark your calendars and get your favorite breakfast casserole recipe ready for the Carry-In Breakfast! Sunday, August 18 at 9:30 a.m., come and share breakfast with your First Pres friends in Fellowship Hall. It's always a great morning, so plan to be here. Both worship services will take place in The Sanctuary that morning.
