This Sunday at First Pres

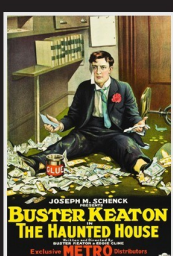

This week we continue to explore “The ~~Impossible~~ Promise of Enough” with a focus on persistence. The Wide Awake band will lead the early service with wonderful music, and our handbell choir will share their gifts at the 10:30 service. Come together this Sunday with your First Pres family whether you attend in-person or join us online at 8:30 or 10:30 a.m. Livestream links and bulletins are available on the First Pres website.

Calling All Readers!

Book Group at First Pres meets next on Monday, November 4, 6:30-8:00 p.m. A Zoom option is available; contact Francie Hubbard to learn how to sign in.

The group will discuss Norwegian by Night, a novel about an old man and a boy who become strangers on the run. It has been called “compelling, funny and richly rewarding.” Although it is available in several electronic formats, copies of the book will be hard to find (only one in EVPL system) so consider sharing with a friend.

On December 2, the book will be The Humans by Matt Haig, a funny tale about a visiting alien's first impression of human beings.

First Friday

November is soon upon us, and that means it's time for another First Friday recital! This Friday, November 1 at 7:00 p.m., we welcome Katie Gunn and James Walton from the IU Jacobs School of Music to the organ bench. Invite your friends to start their month downtown with you and good music!

Let's Eat and Celebrate!

Our congregation has so many reasons to be filled with gratitude. We have an abundance of blessings. And as we move toward Thanksgiving in this season of considering God's ~~Impossible~~ Promise of Enough, we hope it is becoming clear that as people of faith we are each called to be good stewards of God's gifts.

You are invited to bring your favorite shareable brunch dish and gather for an Abundance Brunch on Sunday, November 10 at 9:30 a.m. That Sunday we will give thanks for the abundance of time and talent that is shared in and through this congregation. Both worship services will happen at their regular times in their regular spaces with brunch in between. Bring your dish to the Parlor at 9:30 a.m.
