CAJE House Meetings

Congregations Acting for Justice and Empowerment (CAJE) wants to know your concerns, worries, and hopes for the Evansville area. First Pres will host three “House Meetings” led by First Pres members. These meetings are a space to listen and connect with each other over your concerns, lasting about 60 to 75 minutes. You don’t have to be a member of First Pres to participate, just have a willingness to share and listen. CAJE will use the information as a starting point for finding the next project to help make Evansville a better place for everyone.

Plan to attend:

- ◆ (TONIGHT!) Monday, October 13, 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel
- ◆ Friday, October 17, Noon in the Chapel

And if you cannot attend, you can still participate by taking a quick online survey. The information gathered in the survey will not be publicly shared with others. (You are also welcome to complete the survey even if you attend a house meeting.)

Thanks for helping make Evansville a better place for everyone!
